Termination

Ivey Williams
To Monique Rish

1:08 PM

Monique,

After yesterday's conversation, I have decided to let you go. Your misuse of my personal credit cards was incredibly inappropriate. We spoke about this last month and you assured me it was a misunderstanding yet, last week I received more alerts from my credit card company for strange behaviour when you were on holiday. You clearly aren't keeping my best interest mind. If this continues or you try to reach out to me, I will be contacting the police. I thought we had a good thing going, Monique, but I can never trust you again.

Ivey.

Los Angeles Police Department: Witness Statement Report

CASE NUMBER: D2308-605

REPORTING OFFICER: Detective R. Wallace

PERSON(S) INTERVIEWED: Martin Minabi

INTERVIEW LOCATION: 107 Division

DETAILED SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW: Manabí arrived at Grace's residence around 9:30pm for the award show after party. He saw Pheobe Lane, Lucy Howard, and Gabe Tai, arrive shortly after. Minabi greeted them all and then the group continued to mingle with other guests. Minabi spoke with Edith Grace, and complimented her on her beautiful home. Grace gave Minabi the contact details of Andino Cleaning, the small business of her house cleaner and grounds keeper. She went on to say what great work they do how detailed they are. They continued to speak about the award show and Minabi continued to speak with some of Grace's friends who were all well known in Hollywood.

Minabi saw that Williams was getting her coat at approximately 10:30pm. He spoke with her to see if she was leaving as he knew she had an interview the next day at 11:30am. She responded that she was leaving because a family friend was meeting her at her hotel and she didn't want to stay up too late before her interview.

Around midnight, Minabi was chatting with Phoebe Lane and congratulated her on her nomination at the award show. They heard some yelling coming from the study so Lane excused herself to see what was going on. It sounded like Lucy Howard and Gabe Tai. She returned, closing the study doors behind her and told Minabi there was a bit of 'trouble in paradise'. Minabi asked Lane how Howard was doing health wise and Lane responded in a rude manner saying Minabi 'should know' and then walked away to mingle with other guests. Minabi mentioned that Lane has been giving him a hard time for the past year or so for no good reason.

Approximately an hour later, Minabi saw Howard near the front door getting ready to leave but looked very intoxicated and she had a hard time standing. He asked the house keeper to get Howard's coat and then helped her with a car service. He assisted her in the vehicle to go home. Minabi explained she was really 'out of it'. The Minabi went back inside.

No more than 5 minutes after Howard left, Minabi saw Tai quickly leave the house. He looked out the front window and saw him get into a cab. Minabi assumed he was following Howard back home since they lived together. Minabi left the party approximately 20 minutes later.

The next morning Minabi received a call at 11:40am from the press agency Williams was interviewing with that morning to say that she never showed up for the 11:15am scheduled interview. Minabi tried calling William's phone half a dozen times and there was no pick-up. He assumed she partied too hard while celebrating with her friend so he went to her hotel. She wouldn't answer the door so Minabi was let in by security and found her on the floor, dead at approximately 12:10pm. A chair was knocked over and there was an award on the ground. Minabi immediately called the police who arrived shortly after.

Los Angeles Police Department: Witness Statement Report

CASE NUMBER: D2308-605

REPORTING OFFICER: Detective R. Wallace

PERSON(S) INTERVIEWED: Phoebe Lane

INTERVIEW LOCATION: 107 Division

DETAILED SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW: Lane attended the award show and sat with the cast and director of the movie she was nominated for. She lost the award to Ivey Williams. She was invited to the house of Edith Grace after the award show which she could not turn down with Grace being such a huge name in the business. Lane has been an actress since she was six, so she is well connected and had several parties to attend that evening. She decided to go to Grace's first and since Gabe Tai was invited, she knew her best friend, Lucy Howard would be his plus one. They arranged to arrive at the same time.

Lane met Howard upon arrival at Edith Grace's after party at 9:45pm. Lane says Howard was trying her best to stay in a good mood. Lane wasn't positive but, could see that Howard wasn't being herself, she assumes she was on some kind of drug to help with her mood. Lane continued to state that Howard has had a history of substance abuse and it went particularly downhill when she lost the role to Williams.

Tai arrived shortly after and that seemed to lift Howard's spirit. They were greeted by Edith Grace and started to mingle with the guests. The party was going really well until Williams arrived and that's when Howard and Tai started drinking more than they should have and started getting a bit too rowdy. Lane said Williams was of course talking to everyone in the room. Lane congratulated Williams on her award and cut the small talk short out of her respect for Howard.

At approximately 12:00am Lane started chatting with Martin Minabi. Minabi was asking Lane about how Howard's mental health has been. Lane was annoyed by the question because she feels that since Minabi took Williams on as a new client, he has been neglecting Howard and since Williams got this part, she feels Minabi should have recognized her decline in mental health. Lane mentioned that she was not a fan of Minabi because he seems to 'follow the money' and not keep the best interest of his clients in mind. Then Lane heard loud fighting coming from the study and knew it was Howard and Tai so she went over to see what was happening. In the study, Lane saw Howard sitting on the ground next to the award cabinet crying and upset. Tai was standing in front of her yelling and clearly they were both intoxicated. Lane told them to quiet down and that everyone could hear them. Lane suggested they take a minute to cool down and collect themselves so she closed the door to give them some privacy and returned to the party.

Lane went to mingle with guests at the party and left around 1:00am to go to another party.

The next morning, around 10:00am, Howard called Lane and told her that she is on her way to the rehabilitation clinic because she needed to get some help. Her family and Tai took her.
